Child Help Foundation Pays Tribute to Doctors Across India

Child Help Foundation (CHF), a pan-India non-profit organization committed to the welfare of underprivileged children, has always believed that doctors are the true pillars of healthcare and community well-being. On the occasion of National Doctors' Day, celebrated on 1st July and across multiple locations in July 2025, CHF undertook a heartfelt initiative to honour the invaluable contributions of doctors who dedicate their lives to healing and saving others.

In Kerala, CHF celebrated Doctors' Day across four leading hospitals—Lakeshore Hospital, Amrita Hospital in Kochi, Aster MIMS Hospital in Calicut, and Believers Church Hospital in Thiruvalla. Coordinated by Rino David and Sachin Nair, the program felicitated eight distinguished doctors whose selfless service continues to transform countless lives. Simultaneously, in Maharashtra (Mumbai & Pune), CHF proudly honoured doctors including Dr. Sumet Pawar from Apollo Hospital, Navi Mumbai, and Dr. Mangala Patil from Wockhardt Hospital, Mumbai Suburban, along with other eminent professionals. These gestures of appreciation were tokens of gratitude for their dedication, compassion, and commitment, especially towards underprivileged paediatric patients.

CHF also extended its Doctors' Day celebrations to other states across India, recognizing medical professionals who have been at the forefront of healthcare service, particularly for marginalized communities. This pan-India initiative not only celebrated their healing hands but also highlighted the essential role doctors play in building healthier, more equitable societies.

Reflecting on this initiative, Mr. Sanjay Sinha emphasized:

"Doctors embody the values of service, compassion, and resilience. By honouring them, we are not only expressing gratitude but also strengthening bonds that will help us extend quality healthcare to every child, regardless of their background."

This Doctors' Day tribute stands as a reminder that while medicines heal the body, compassion heals the soul—and it is through partnerships with these dedicated medical professionals that CHF continues to transform lives, inspire hope, and build a healthier tomorrow.

Vidhur, 7 Year
TMJ Ankylosis

A Father's Struggle to Bring Back His Son's Smile

"My son cannot speak properly, eat without difficulty, or enjoy the simple joys of life like other children. He was born without hands and legs, and now this condition makes life even harder for him. But I will keep trying until he gets the help he needs."

—Shekhar (Father)

Seven-year-old Vidhur from Saharanpur, Uttar Pradesh, has never known an easy life.

Born without hands and legs, he has faced unimaginable challenges since birth. To make matters worse, Vidhur has also been suffering from Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) Ankylosis, a painful condition that restricts the movement of his jaw, making it difficult for him to open his mouth, eat, or speak.

His parents first noticed the symptoms early on, but due to their financial limitations, they could not seek proper treatment. After multiple consultations, doctors at Panacea Hospital, Dehradun, Uttarakhand, confirmed that Vidhur urgently needs Temporomandibular Joint Surgery to ease his pain and give him a chance at a better future. The cost of this treatment is Rs. 6,00,000/- (Rupees Six Lakh Only).

Shekhar, a labourer and the only earning member of a seven-member family, is struggling to make ends meet. He is already in debt after trying everything possible to save for his son's treatment.

There are many more children who need urgent treatments, and your small contributions can make a huge difference.

Empowering the Future – The Importance of Youth Skills Development

Every year, 15th July is celebrated as World Youth Skills Day, a day dedicated to acknowledging the strategic importance of equipping young people with skills for employment, decent work, and entrepreneurship. As we face an ever-evolving global landscape shaped by technological innovation, climate change, and social transformation, it is more vital than ever to invest in our youth.

Why Youth Skills Matter

Today's youth are tomorrow's leaders, innovators, and changemakers. However, many young people still lack access to the training and opportunities necessary to fulfil their potential. According to the United Nations, young people aged 15 to 24 are almost three times more likely to be unemployed than adults. This disparity underlines the urgency of skills development as a tool for bridging economic and social gaps.

Technical and vocational education and training (TVET) can play a transformative role in helping youth build market-relevant skills. From computer programming and digital marketing to plumbing, carpentry, and tailoring, skills of all types hold the power to unlock pathways to independence and empowerment.

The Role of Education and Partnerships

The responsibility of nurturing skills does not lie with governments alone. Educational institutions, non-profit organisations, private companies, and local communities must work together to create inclusive and practical learning environments. It's not just about formal education, but also about developing life skills, such as communication, teamwork, problem solving, and emotional intelligence.

Internships, apprenticeships, volunteering opportunities, and mentorship programmes help bridge the gap between education and employment. Such exposure not only develops technical knowledge but also boosts self-confidence and critical thinking, essential qualities in today's workplace.

Internships, apprenticeships, volunteering opportunities, and mentorship programmes help bridge the gap between education and employment. Such exposure not only develops technical knowledge but also boosts self-confidence and critical thinking, essential qualities in today's workplace.

Youth at the Centre of Innovation

The energy, creativity, and adaptability of young people make them natural innovators. Across the globe, youth-led start-ups, social enterprises, and tech initiatives are making headlines for their solutions to climate issues, healthcare gaps, and digital accessibility. But to harness this potential, we must provide access to resources, skill-building platforms, and investment in youth-focused innovation.

Looking Ahead

This World Youth Skills Day, let us recognise the boundless capabilities of our younger generation. Let's commit to creating systems that foster learning, growth, and opportunity. When we invest in youth skills, we're not just preparing them for the future; we are building a future that is more inclusive, equitable, and prosperous for all.
